

Stephen F. Bauer, M.D.

Dr. Stephen F. Bauer, a member of the Dartmouth class of 1968, died February 22, 2019 in Rochester, New York, at the age of 72. He was diagnosed two and a half years ago with multiple myeloma.

Stephen is survived by his wife of 40 years, Anne Bauer; daughter, Erica (Corey) Evert of Fairfax, Virginia; beloved grandson, Jack Bauer Evert; mother, Dorothy Bauer and sister, Patricia Bauer, both of Ann Arbor.

He was predeceased by his father, Dr. Gerhard Bauer.

Stephen grew up in Ann Arbor. Besides Dartmouth, he was a graduate of the University of Michigan medical school (1972), and Harvard School of Public Health (1977). While at Dartmouth, he rowed heavyweight crew for four years.

Stephen started his career as a pediatrician in rural Maine to fulfill his dream of being a country doctor. After ten years, he moved to Rochester where he specialized in developmental pediatrics. Stephen's patients and families truly valued his clinical skills and compassionate care. He retired in 2017. Friends lovingly describe Stephen as a "man larger than life, full of joy and kindness." He was a proud father and grandfather and a man of many interests. Stephen had a deep faith and was active in his church.
